

Highway Crashes Claim Lives Of Boy And Man

Two persons of the area were fatally injured by automobiles Monday.

A 14-year-old New Lenox boy, Joseph Harms, a freshman, at Lincoln-Way High School, and George M. Reynolds, 27, of Frankfort, an insurance man, were the victims.

The boy was hit about 5:45 on N. Cedar Rd. and pronounced dead on arrival at Silver Cross Hospital, Joliet.

Reynolds was driving east on U.S. 30 about 3:40 o'clock in the afternoon when his car was struck broadside by a speeding vehicle traveling south on Harlem Ave. He was taken to St. James Hospital, Chicago Heights, where he died some hours later.

Deputy Sheriff George Hendrick, who covered the Will county accident, reported that the Harms boy had alighted from a Lincoln-Way School bus at Francis Rd., just a short time before, and was walking north along Cedar Rd., on the left side of the highway facing oncoming traffic. Joseph had remained after school to practice with the gymnastic team and was on his way home.

Driver of the car that struck him, Curtis L. LaFontaine, 24, of 223 E. 10th St., Lockport, told Deputy Hendrick that he had been traveling west on Francis St. and turned north on Cedar. Ahead of him, LaFontaine was quoted as saying, was a blue panel truck, also heading north and its directional signal indicated the driver intended to turn right.

The truck was not going fast, LaFontaine said, and he thought it was going to turn in some driveway or off the road so he pulled out to the left to pass. When he did he saw something dark just ahead of him and the next instant he had struck someone. According to the report the boy was carried about 50 feet by the impact and the car went on about 175 feet before coming to a stop. LaFontaine recalled seeing the panel truck still going north with the directional light indicating a right turn. According to the report the boy was wearing dark clothing.

No date has been set yet for the inquest by Coroner Willard G. Blood. LaFontaine was ticketed on a charge of failure to yield right of way and striking a pedestrian. He is scheduled to appear in magistrate's court Dec. 21.

The body of the Harms boy was brought to the Baskerville Chapel, Lincoln Highway and Roberts Rd., from where services were conducted this morning (Thursday) at 9:30 o'clock to St. Jude Roman Catholic Church at 10 for a requiem mass. Interment was in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Joliet.

The boy is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Harms (Mrs. Harms was the former Dorothy Techman), three sisters, Debora, Tina and Candace, and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Caroline Techman. The boy was born at Joliet but had lived most of his life in New Lenox.

In the other fatality, which was covered by Trooper Ronald Yankovich, of State Police Dist. 4, Blue Island, the driver of the car blamed for the collision was Sam M. Demumbrum, 47 of 7500 W. 57th St., Summit. He was charged with driving while drunk, ignoring a stop sign, and causing injury to another motorist. Demumbrum escaped with only slight injury and was not hospitalized. A passenger in his car, Arthur Robinson, 38, also of Summit, escaped any hurt. He was not arrested.

The victim, Mr. Reynolds, was taken to St. James Hospital in the Frankfort Chapel ambulance and died there later. Demumbrum was locked up in the Chicago Heights police station when he was unable to make bond Monday night.

Mr. Reynolds was a representative of the John Hancock Insurance Co. and he and his wife, Henrietta, came to Frankfort from South Holland. They have not been in Frankfort long. There is a 2-year-old child.

Funeral services for Mr. Reynolds were held today from the Tews Chapel at Homewood, Illinois. His parents Mr. and Mrs. Max Reynolds reside at Homewood.

Interior Design Corner...

DON'T GET LOST

NOEL E. SMITH

In several recent articles we have stressed the importance of calling for professional assistance in planning your home interior.

Many people are apprehensive about calling on a decorator for planning help because they feel they will be "obligated", or that they are expected to buy a room (or houseful) once they have engaged him. So, they proceed to furnish by stages, without proper guidance; and midway through the project they become hopelessly tangled up — "lost", in a word. It need not happen.

We, as decorators, are as concerned as you are with the final result in your home whether you furnish by stages or all at once. The important fact is, that without the proper foundation and planning, it is virtually impossible to achieve the results you are paying for and have every right to expect.

We have been called in on many occasions when the home owner was midway through an interior decorating project and was admittedly "lost". It is much more difficult for the decorator to step in at this point and complete the job with the results he or she could have accomplished if called at the outset.

There is no need to live with mistakes when our planning service is available at no charge. You pay only for the Merchandise selected.

Won't you help us "find" the room scheme you are looking for.

Extinguish Electric Fire With A Puff Of Powder

Commonwealth Edison crews setting poles these days have been complaining they are so penetrated with moisture that a touch of high voltage can cause trouble.

To protect crews and equipment the end of the pole that is shoved up thru the overhead wire is sheathed in plastic insulation for about 12 feet.

Last Friday a crew was preparing to set a new plastic pole on Wolf Rd. at Mokena, about opposite Denny St. An orange plastic sheath covered the sky end. The pole was gripped above the middle by one of those machines that are used in performing this chore. Whether there was an opening in the sheath or what, anyway the end of the pole touched, a 7,200-volt wire and burst into flames.

The insulation burned slowly, with chunks dropping to the cross arms of the pole to be replaced, and onto wires, and perched there burning brightly.

The Mokena fire department was delayed by a long freight that had the crossings tied up and when it got there extinguished the burning material on the ground and by breaking the stream--switching it off and on--it knocked out some of the fire aloft. Water being a prime conductor of electricity a crew that held a stream on an electric fire would probalby wind up in a hospital if not a morgue, it was pointed out.

About that time another utility company crew arrived, equipped to handle such a situation. Two men were raised to the top of the pole in baskets and from there they directed clouds of a dry chemical, a powder, that smothered the flames at contact.

SHIRLEY DWER, assistant editor of the Carl Sandburg High School newspaper, "The Aquila" is shown receiving the publicity citation from Mrs. Robert Stevens, vice-chairman of the Southwest YMCA executive board.

SPECIALIST FOUR Eugene Cheney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cheney, Ogden Rd., New Lenox, who has been serving in Vietnam with the 701st Maintenance Battalion, was recently cited for valor recommended by his commanding officer, Capt. Donald H. Adamick.

Spec. Cheney proved on numerous occasions to be the most instrumental person in the successful execution of the party's recovery mission. His technical knowledge as a mechanic was tested frequently and he demonstrated an usual proficiency in both fields.

Spec. Cheney's achievements contributed materially to the successful completion of the convoy operations and his actions were in the highest traditions of the military service.

BROKEN STREAM of water could eventually do the job but that powdered chemical works magic on fire--there you see it, there you don't. Pole and plastic sheath were ignited by a 7,200 volt line with which it came in contact while a Commonwealth Edison crew was putting in new poles along Wolf Rd. at Mokena.

Junior College District 524 Names New Board President

A president has been found for southwest suburban Junior College District 524. Theodore Lownik, chairman of the college board, announced Monday that Dr. Robert Turner, currently president of the Macomb County Community College in Michigan has accepted the post and will arrive shortly after the first of the year.

Dr. Turner, who attended the college board meeting Dec. 4, brings "an impressive educational background and a wealth of developmental and administrative experience to the district," Lownik said.

He has been instrumental in developing the Macomb County College into a multi-campus institution serving 11,000 students, planning and developing staff, curricula and physical facilities. Previously, he was state supervisor of technical education in Arizona, active in planning junior colleges in that state.

He will head the newest of Illinois' two-year community colleges, District 524 was formed in April, 1967, and although it has neither classrooms nor professors yet, it has 2,000 students, placing it near the middle size in Illinois. All these students currently attend other junior colleges in the metropolitan area, with District 524 paying charge-back costs.

The new college president's job will be to develop a comprehensive college program, with the first classes to start in the fall of 1968, and to plan and develop the necessary physical plant.

The college board has spent months searching for the right man to handle this job. Three key educators from the midwest, with contact men on each coast, screened more than 50 potential presidents before making their recommendations to the board.

Board members conducted a series of interviews and visited other colleges during their search. They cited multiple reasons for selecting Dr. Turner.

"He has a strong educational background and a broad range of interests," said Lownik. Born on a Missouri farm, Dr. Turner majored in fine arts for his bachelor's degree in education from Northwest Missouri State College. His master's degree from Colorado A & M was in vocational education. For his doctorate in education at the University of Missouri, he majored in industrial education with administration and guidance as supporting fields.

Other board members cited experience in planning and developing programs and physical facilities, as he did in Michigan, Arizona, and earlier in Louisiana, where he developed two and four-year programs in electronics for Northwestern

DR. ROBERT TURNER

State College, Natchitoches.

Experience in dealing with state and federal officials while developing these programs and in cooperating with other schools was cited by others. Dr. Turner is past president of the Michigan Association of Community College Administrators, and current president of the Michigan Association of Colleges and Universities.

During World War II, Dr. Turner served as a naval gunfire liaison officer and was decorated with the bronze and silver stars. During his college years, he worked as a cabinet maker, salesman, and TV repairman. Later, he helped to develop training programs in cooperation with labor and management groups.

Orland Park

Area Nazarene Church To Join Spiritual Outreach

MRS. SHERMAN KNOX
Telephone: 349-0211

A spiritual outreach team from Olivet Nazarene College at Kankakee has become an active part of the Orland Park Church of the Nazarene. The team, composed of five students ranging from ages 19 to 22 take an active part in the function of the church each Sunday.

The program was started last year to give students the opportunity to aid churches within a 50 mile radius of Kankakee.

The outreach team for Orland Park is made up of Michelle Gregory, Chicago; Neva Carpenter, Battle Creek, Mich.; Don Hendren, Fort Recovery, O.; Ron Waltrip, Springfield, Ill. and Ted Young, Ashland, O.

The Rev. Robert Lothenore, pastor of the Orland Park Church of the Nazarene said, "We feel that the students from Olivet are a spiritual help to the youth of the church."

"Since the Outreach group has started taking part in the services the appeal to the young people has become greater. The group is very well accepted by the congregation and we're glad they are here," said Hazel Glisson, a student at Carl Sandburg High School, and a member of the Nazarene Young People's Society.

The Orland church is planning a revival, to begin Jan. 10. Sunday School 9:30 a.m., morning worship at 10:30 a.m. The Sunday evening youth service is at 6:15 p.m., evening worship at 7:00. Wednesday prayer service at 7:30 p.m. The Orland Park Church of the Nazarene is located at 9651 W. 143rd St.

The First Baptist Church of Orland Park, 151st & 94th Ave., (Orland Center School).

The Prayer Meeting was held Wednesday evening, Dec. 13, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Shell, 10224 Hyacinth Drive. The Young Peoples Christmas Party will be Friday, Dec. 15. The annual Christmas Program will be Sunday morning, Dec. 24.

In place of a PTA meeting this month, parents will be treated to a Musical Fantasy which is being given by first through fifth graders on the nights of Dec. 19 and 21, in the School gymnasium.

The setting is a toy shop; and the pageant, under the direction of Miss Bernice Martin, music teacher in the schools, will be given twice. On Tuesday, Dec. 19, children of the school will present the program, and on Thursday, Dec. 21, Center children will take the stage.

Every child in the first five grades is involved, and many colorful songs and costumes will add a festive air.

Both programs will begin at 7:30 at the School gymnasium.

Navy Ensign Thomas K. Scheber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor S. Scheber, 13600 S. Harlem Ave., made his first solo flight at the Saufley Field, Naval Auxiliary Air Station at Pensacola, Fla.

Airman Michael D. Conner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Conner, 4411-182nd Place, has completed basic training at Amarillo, Tex.

On Sunday, Dec. 17, the Chancel Choir of the Palos Park Presbyterian Community Church, 12312 88th Avenue, Palos Park, will present the cantata "Gloria" by Vivaldi. Soloists will be Mrs. Jack Althuis, Mrs. George Botts, both of Oak Lawn, Mrs. Roger Owen, Park Forest, Mrs. Stephen Schrock, La Grange, and Mrs. Wm. Griffin, Palos Park.

This work is particularly suited for the Christmas Season as it has for its theme "Glory to God and peace on earth, good will eternally." Vivaldi wrote the "Gloria" when he was a teacher at a girl's school in his native Italy, a fact which seems to account for the presence of only soprano and alto soloists in the work. The music was lost to public sight for over 200 years. The first modern performance of the work was in 1939.

Dr. Paul M. Lundell, Pastor, will offer a brief interpretation of this work. The cantata will be presented at both the 9:30 and 11:15 a.m. Worship Services.

The annual Christmas Party of the Fire Auxiliary will be held Monday evening, Dec. 18 at the Executive Club, 119th & South West Highway. Members are to meet at the fire hall at 7 p.m. sharp.

The Orland Park Woman's Club will hold their annual Christmas party, Wednesday, Dec. 20 at the Community Center Foundation at 12:30 p.m. Mrs. E. W. Schuessler, chairman of Music Department, will present, students of Richards High School, in charge of a musical program under the direction of Mr. Chapman.

Hostesses are Mesdames, H.P. Smith, Frank Buck, Ray Doctor, J.K. Lamb, Stewart Loebe and Albert Watts.

On Tuesday, Dec. 5, about 24 members and guests went by bus on a tour to the Campbell Soup Company and National Biscuit Company.

On Wednesday evening, Dec. 13, the Adult Bible Class of the Methodist Church, met at the home of Mrs. Ray Doctor for their meeting and annual Christmas Party with a gift exchange.

The Methodist Men will meet for their monthly breakfast and meeting, Sunday morning, Dec. 17 at 8 a.m.

Tuesday evening, Dec. 5, the members of the American Legion Auxiliary surprised Mrs. Knox and held their meeting and Christmas party at her home. The members served refreshments and the usual exchange of gifts, followed.

The public is invited, but eighth-graders and their parents, who are now making a choice of Catholic high schools, are especially welcome.

The campus is located between Joliet and New Lenox, where Washington St., Route 30, and Gougar Road meet.

At the open house, teachers and administrators will be available to give information requested by visitors.

There will be displays of student accomplishments from all departments, including the sciences and art courses.

For the first time, the recently introduced music department will be open to the public. Individual lessons in guitar, piano, organ, violin, and other instruments are now offered to Providence students.

There are more than 30 student organizations and activities besides athletics which students may join.

The athletic department will outline its competition in football, basketball, baseball, cross country, track, soccer, and golf.

Tours of the school will be offered to those who wish them.

Refreshments will be prepared and served throughout the afternoon by the home economics department.

Due to its out-of-the city location, the school always has ample parking facilities.

Hours of the open house are 2 to 5 p.m.

A highlight of the afternoon will be the annual concert by the award-winning Pro-

Fresh Christmas Trees

Safest, Say Experts

More than 50 million Americans will be buying Christmas trees as a part of their observance of the holiday season.

But a Christmas tree, improperly selected and cared for, can be a serious fire hazard, says the American Insurance Association. The Association offers these tips in the interest of safety.

1 -- Shop around, if necessary, but buy only a fresh tree. Feel the needles on a branch of the tree you are planning to buy. Stroke the needles with your hand. If needles drop from the branch, the tree is not fresh. Select another one. If all of the trees on the seller's lot appear dry, go to another seller.

2 -- A tree kept-out-of-doors will stay fresh much longer than one in the house. If possible, keep your tree outside until the day before Christmas, and stand it in a pail of water. The tree will "drink" water, and the water will keep the tree fresh and green.

3 -- When you bring the tree inside the house or apartment to decorate it, put the tree up in the coolest part of the room -- away from radiators, hot air ducts, and fire places.

4 -- To help keep your tree fresh longer, you should use a tree stand with a metal container that can be filled with water. The container should be filled with water immediately, and then checked daily to determine when more water should be added.

5 -- Only tree decorations made of glass, metal, or some other non-combustible material should be placed on the Christmas tree.

6 -- Check Christmas tree lights before placing them on the tree to be sure they are in good operating condition. Strings of lights with frayed wires or faulty sockets should be replaced with new ones, and they should bear the "UL" label, which signifies that the product has been tested and listed by Underwriters' Laboratories.

7 -- If you set up an electric train at Christmas time, place it in a part of a room where the tracks are away from the tree. A spark from a toy train can cause a Christmas fire.

8 -- Christmas tree lights should be turned off at night. And this is important: Never leave Christmas lights on when everyone is away from home.

9 -- Check your Christmas tree frequently to be sure it is not too dry. Check tree needles near lights and if the needles feel brittle, change the position of the light.

10 -- If you have a metal tree, do not decorate it with Christmas lights which could cause a short-circuit. Instead, use off-the-tree lighting.

11 -- If the tree becomes dry, take it down immediately and discard it outside. Most families make it a practice to take down the tree after New Year's as a fire prevention precaution.

Loose Gift Wrappings Are Fire Hazards

On Christmas morning, pick up gift wrappings immediately after presents have been opened, cautions the American Insurance Association.

Rumpled papers are always a fire hazard, the Association pointed out.

If there are wrappings you wish to save, fold them up neatly and put them away.

The rest should be gathered together and placed in a waste container - preferably the garbage or trash can outside the home.

Six High Schools Open Bowling Loop

Last night (Dec. 13) was the opening date for inter-school bowling in the South-west Suburban Bowling Conference, made up of six area high schools.

Site of the matches was the Palos Bowl. The six schools are: Amos Alonzo Stagg, Oak Lawn, Reavis, Evergreen Park, H.L. Richards, and D.D. Eisenhower, according to league secretary Don MacGregor, Stagg High business teacher.

Emphasis is on wide participation, not on winning or league standings, MacGregor said. Schools will be represented by both a girls' team and a boys' team. But every meet, two new members who have not previously bowled in interschool competition, must participate.

So the constant changing of personnel should encourage the fun of bowling more than winning for one's school.

There will be one get-together each month by the six schools. In January, the schools meet at the Oak Lawn Bowl; in February, Reavis is host at El Marr Bowling Alley; in March, Evergreen Towers is the alley; and in April, Richards hosts at the Arena.

Forty-eight students participate each week and a total of 20 games will be played over the season.

Stagg also has its own intramural league which meets each Tuesday at Palos Bowl. About 60 students in 14 teams, bowl in the mixed league. MacGregor is sponsor of the Stagg program which began last year with ten teams.

To be known as the Southwest Bank and located at 14500 S. Cicero Ave., it will have a capitalization of $750,000. Capital stock is listed at $300,000, surplus at $300,000 and reserve for operating expense at $150,000. Capital stock to be issued consists of 30,000 shares with a par value of $10 each.

Organizers are: Leland H. Rayson, Tinley Park; John W. O'Donnell, Orland Park; Carol C. Dace, Wilbert Scharlau, Ralph F. Pignatiello and Harry Raday, all of Midlothian, and Thomas J. Durkin, Westchester.

Rainbow Council Camp Fund Keeps Growing

Recent gifts to the Rainbow Council Camp Development Fund continue to give added assurance of a successful effort to establish one of the finest camps in the nation in this Council Area.

E.C. Kinyon, general superintendent of the Joliet Works U.S. Steel, and E.C. Kinyon, general superintendent of the E J & E Railway, jointly presented a check for $20,000 to Morton H. Hollingsworth, chairman of the Camp Development campaign, from the U.S. Steel Foundation with a letter from R.C. Tyson, chairman of the foundation's financial policy committee stating, "We wish you every success in your important task, and hope that other foundations and donors will be encouraged to join in a common effort toward the stated objectives."

In addition, a check for $2,000 was delivered to Scout Executive Bernard C. Rodenhizer by Jack Hoeferlin, an associate Explorer Advisor of Post 391 in Mokena. He is an employee of the Ford Chicago Stamping Plant at Chicago Heights and the gift was from the Ford Company Fund. He represented a number of Scouters of Will and Kankakee counties who work at the Ford plant.

Another major industry the Dowe Chemical Co. of Midland Mich. gave styrofoam valued at $2,400 to be used for floatation of the swim and boat docks at the camp.

Work on the New Camp is underway and it will be in use next summer. The waterfront and boat area has been graded, the large lake outlet has been redone, a camp ranger's residence completed and the combination maintenance, trading post and equipment issue building is near completion.

The Mokena Methodist Church school will have its Christmas program on Dec. 17, at 7:30 p.m. Special carols from around the world will be the highlight of this children's carol service.

One carol, a 12th century French carol, The Friendly Beasts, will be presented by the 1st and 2nd graders. The Kindergarten will sing a German carol "O Come, Little Children". The 3rd and 4th grade will sing a traditional English carol, How Far Is It To Bethlehem. Miss Pam Schutte will play the flute to accompany the 5th and 6th grade class singing "He Is Born", "The Child Devine", a french carol. The junior choir under the direction of Mrs. Vernon Lankenau, will present The Child Come and a Liberian Folk carol, called The African Noel with Dean Bressler accompanying on the drums. An ensemble of 7th and 8th grade boys will present "March of the Three Kings and their counterpart, the 7th and 8th grade girls chorus will sing "All My Heart This Night Rejoices".

The children of the church school have made a special contribution to buy mittens for the needy children in the Joliet area. These gifts will be presented at the carol service by a group of the children dressed in costumes of children all around the world. A procession of the 2-3 yr. old class will follow.

The narrator for the carol service will be Doug Welsch, of the senior high class. The special carols were taught to the classes by Miss Janel Tyler, Miss DeeAnn Bressler and Miss Kedra Welsch. Mrs. Vernon Lankenau is the music coordinator for the entire service.

A special Christmas program is planned by the Women's Fellowship of St. John's Church for this evening at 7:30 p.m. at the church. Mrs. Hilda Geuther will give the devotions and a filmstrip called "Christmas Legends". Special entertainment will be provided by a group called the Shirley Janer Ensemble singing Christmas selections. Business will be dispensed for the evening, and a social evening is planned. All members are urged to attend and bring a guest. Mrs. Carol Homerding is chairman of the refreshment committee.

The Alpine Girls 4-H held their November meeting on Monday, Nov. 13, at the Harwood Stellwagen home. They made plans for their Christmas party and decided to make gifts for orphanages for Christmas. The next meeting will be on Dec. 18 at the Stellwagen home. All new members are welcome.

tioned in Germany for the past 17 months serving with the 591st Transportation Co. as a helicopter repairman.

After the December meeting of the Ladies Aux. to Post #725, a Christmas party was held with an exchange of gifts and a potluck dinner.

Seven members attended the annual 5th Dist. membership dinner held on Nov. 18, at Bensenville, Ill. The next public card party will be held at the hall Dec. 16, with Helen Gaszak and Janet Gaszak as hostesses.

The sixth annual Christmas decoration contest is being held by the Mokena garden club for its members Dec. 17. This years contest has as its theme "The Spirit of Christmas." Rules were issued to the garden club members at the November meeting. The door decorations will be limited to outside entrance doors, railing, stoop, wall adjacent to door and overhead of door. Those homes which do not have a door facing drive may utilize window or wall as in years before. The Decorations will be judged for the street or drive. Illumination is part of the contest and must be lit at the time of judging which will be 4:30 p.m. The decorations will be judged on originality, appeal, suitability with theme and durability.

At 6 p.m. on Dec. 17, a Christmas party will be held at the home of Mrs. Harold Beebe and the decision of the judges will be announced to the garden club members and their husbands and the silver trophy will be awarded.

Russ Kemp, South Holland, will present a colored slide program of "Stones in Religion." He will show many things that have been made from stone, some precious and semi-precious, mineral and crystal specimens for a religious purpose.

the Christmas gift a woman never forgets, a wonderful electric dishwasher

A wife likes pretty, personal gifts at Christmas. But she loves practical ones, too. And probably the most wanted practical gift of all is an electric dishwasher. Nothing else she can own saves her so many endless hours of drudgery. Come to think of it, how could a gift be more personal, or look prettier to her?

With just a flick of a switch a dishwasher washes, rinses, and dries... all automatically. Glasses, dishes, and flatware come out sparkling, without water spots or towel streaks. Everything is washed and rinsed in water hotter than hands... even gloved hands... can stand. Then it's dried in pure, clean, electrically heated air that's far more sanitary than any dish towel.

You can now get a portable dishwasher, if you like, that does every bit as good a job. Portables need no plumbing connections, and they can be permanently installed in a new kitchen later.

You'll be surprised how little it costs to give your wife the happiness that comes with a new electric dishwasher. See the built-in and portable models at your electric appliance dealer's now. And a Merry Christmas to you both.
